Individual revelation. Thomas Aquinas believed in two types of individual revelation from God, general revelation and special revelation. In general revelation, God reveals himself through his creation, such that at least some truths about God can be learned by the empirical study of nature, physics, cosmology, etc., to an individual. Special revelation is the knowledge of God and spiritual ...

Many Christians do not automatically live a victorious life, and they don't understand why. Although we are saved, there can still be demonic attachments to our lives that need to be severed, and strongholds torn down. This prayer helps cut off old cycles of loss, poverty and many other things; it also begins a progressive cycle of breakthrough in the life of the believer.

What is a prophet according to LDS belief? Here is a brief description from the article "Prophet" in the Encyclopedia of Mormonism, Vol. 3: . The word "prophet" comes from the Greek prophetes, which means "inspired teacher." Although neither the Greek term nor its Hebrew equivalent, nabi, initially required the function of foretelling, all prophecy looks to the future.
